5.1.4.3 Mechanisms for submission of online/offline student's grievances.

The college has set up several committees to address student complaints, racial issues, and issues specific to SC/ST students, female staff members, and girl students. The institute will receive student complaints via offline or online more and resolve the issues through the appropriate committees and the suitable mechanism.

Grievance Redressal Mechanism:

The Institute offers the students a simple and accessible tool for the fast resolution of their daily complaints. Concerns about the course material, lectures, book availability, transportation and other facilities, internal evaluation, student fighting, teasing, insulting based on race, caste, or religion, women's harassment instances, etc., are received for resolution.

Stages for Redressal of grievances are:

First stage (Section Department level)

The aggrieved Student represents his/her grievance either in person or through Online or Writing to the concerned Person In-charge in the Dept, which is acknowledged. A written reply is sent to the student under the signature of the In-charge / HOD within 15 days.

Second stage (Administration level)

If the student is not satisfied, he/she may request the Person In-charge / HoD to forward his/her grievance to the grievance committee constituted at Administration level comprising the following:

- a. Concerned Head of the Department
- b. Legal Advisor
- c. Principal

Along with concerned HOD, any one among the other two (b and c) would address the issue/grievance and after thorough screening of the grievance recommendations of the grievance committee will be communicated to the concerned student within 15 days.

The representation will be disposed of in the Grievance redressal Meeting which meets as per the Requirement or at least once in a semester.

All the officers try to put in their best efforts to examine and redress the genuine grievances submitted by students at different stages expeditiously.
